MISS MARGARET INGELS,

DECLARE CONFIDENCE IN THE STATE COURTS.

O'Neal and Humphrey Defend Democratic Judges Who Have Been Assailed.

Review Of Goebel Cases.

One of the most successful and largest democratic meetings of the present campaign was held in Louisville Tuesday night. The chief speakers were Joseph T. O'Neal and Alexander P. Humphrey, two of the most prominent lawyers in Kentucky. Both came out unqualifiedly in declaring their confidence in the purity of Kentucky's judiciary. Said Mr. O'Neal:

"They make the charge that the judiciary of the State is partisan. That life, liberty and property in Kentucky are not safe because of a partisan judiciary. Even the republican party ought to be ashamed of this slander, yet it is incorporated both in the State and local platform. The speakers refer specially to the court in which these charged with the murder of Mr. Goebel have been indicted. I have no word of comment as to the innocence or guilt of any of these men. I leave them to be judged by their peers when called to answer at the bar of justice. But I am in a position to know that the court referred to has been and is being outrageously libeled.

It fell to my lot to defend one of the men charged with this crime—through a long and hard fought trial the prisoner and his counsel were shown every reasonable and proper courtesy by the distinguished judge who presided at the trial, by the counsel for the State and by all the officers of the law in charge of the trial, and on all questions the rulings of the judge were just and impartial. Before the fate of the prisoner was known I publicly in open court declared the defendant had been given a fair trial on the merits of his case. He was promptly acquitted by the jury because he was innocent of the crime charged. Another republican, charged with the same crime was brought to trial in the same court and was promptly acquitted by the jury, who believed him innocent. In another case in the same court, learned counsel for the defendant reserved over 800 exceptions to the rulings of the court, and a republican court of appeals, not as a partisan court, but in the honest discharge of their duty, found only three errors out of 800 claimed. This is a record that any judge, even a Mansfield or a Kent, might be proud of.

Think, fellow citizens, of a party claiming to be law abiding, taking under its protection men charged by the solemn oath grand juries with the foul crime of murder! That party has shamelessly and distinctly committed itself to the protection of these men whether they be guilty or innocent, and boldly ask the people of Kentucky to clothe it with power to stay the hands of justice. Mr. Belknap may now think it good policy to say he will judge of these cases as they come to him, but when he publicly declares that convictions are being secured on perjured testimony and partisan rulings of the court, he unequivocally commits himself to their protection and adopts the prudent policy of Mr. Taylor to take no chances and grant pardons as the proper solution of the questions. The Good Book says: "The guilty flee when no man pursueth." By the laws of Kentucky when these men fled her borders they testified to their own guilt, and when the time comes, as it must come, when these men like the humblest citizen of the State, must face this charge, their own hurried and cowardly flight will be a trumpet-tongued witness against them."

In reference to the same subject Judge Humphrey said:

"The part of the ticket to which I desire especially to address myself is that which embraces the nominations for judges upon our local bench. In the local republican platform it is stated substantially that our security rests upon a judiciary which will not be controlled in its judgments by partisan considerations. I have been a practicing lawyer at this bar for very many years, and have been led by my experience and what I have learned to believe that our bench is singularly free from any such influences. What cases have been decided that indicate this partisan bias I have not heard.

It may be that this is meant to be a general charge against the judiciary of the State. We have had in the last few years many cases before the court of appeals involving political questions. So far as these concerns contests for office, I do not believe that any one will say that this court has divided politically or has rendered judgments along political lines of difference. There were, it is true, a number of cases which grew out of the contests made over the offices filled at the State election of 1899. During a part of the time the court numbered four democrats and three republicans and another part four republicans and three democrats. It is true that, generally speaking, the members of the court divided upon strict political lines. In one case, that of Taylor against Beckham, four democrats and two republicans voted to affirm the judgment in favor of Beckham. Only one judge—a republican—dissented.

In all this I see no grounds for a charge of partisanship that does not apply equally to the judges holding the one or the other political faith. There is another class of cases growing out of the assassination of William Goebel, an event which, in my judgment, was more disastrous to the good name and the peace and order of Kentucky than any event which has ever occurred in its history.

James Howard has twice appealed to the court of appeals from judgments of conviction. Upon the first appeal the court standing four republicans and three democrats, voted unanimously to reverse the conviction; upon the second appeal, the court still standing four republicans and three democrats, voted four for reversal and three for affirmance.

In the case of Caleb Powers there have been also two appeals heard and determined in the court of appeals. Upon both of these appeals the court stood four republicans for reversal and three democrats for affirmance. The last judgment for reversal passed by a majority of one republican and was handed down Dec. 2, 1902. In the November preceding Judge Barker had been elected over Judge DaRelle and took his seat at the meeting of the court in January, 1903. This made the court four democrats to three republicans. A petition for rehearing was filed by the Commonwealth. It was unanimously held by the court that it could not be entertained.

Again, the court has decided by a vote of four republicans to three democrats, that under the circumstances the judge who tried the case at the circuit court, should have vacated the bench upon the affidavit filed by the accused. When the case was called for trial in May of 1903, this judge, entertaining the view that an opinion in a criminal case, unlike that in a civil case, was not binding upon the appellate court, declined to vacate the bench. Thereupon a proceeding was taken before the court of appeals to test this question, the court decided unanimously there being four democrats on the bench and three republicans—that the opinion delivered by a bare majority of the court was binding upon the whole court."

KINGSVILLE.

Kingsville ought to organize a Beckham Club.

Master Jesse McCarty has been quite sick with throat trouble.

Protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church the third Sunday in November.

Our two milliners, Mesdames Baker and Thompson, are supplying the fastidious public with stylish millinery. The canning factory has closed for the season. A new machine for labeling cans was recently purchased by the canning factory.

Manfred and Eugene Cheyette have beautified their new home with paint, the color of which seems to give perfect satisfaction to all.

Your correspondent will go to Flemingsburg in a few days to visit relatives. Mr Cummins, of the firm of Cummins & McClary, Stanford, was here on business.

Claude Hester undertook to drive one of his mules a few days since, but a runaway was the result and Claude's rubber tire was demolished. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Pleasant Point, conducted by Rev. W. R. Davidson. The protracted meeting at the Christian church, has been postponed a few weeks. Eld. H. K. Jones filled his appointment Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Walls and little daughter visited her son, John Walls, near Stanford. Felix Twidwell was here recently, after an absence of several months. Bob Adams, of Lexington, was here this week. Cicero Singleton, of Waynesburg, was here Friday.

The writer wants to know why we can not have some political speaking here? We have a cannery factory, a first class restaurant, Maccabee lodge and a democratic majority (according to a census taken by Deputy Sheriff Edmund Murphy) and yet we haven't had but two political speeches during the campaign.

Clarence Dunn, of the North End, is at home to attend his sister's wedding, which will take place at an early date. Mack Williams spent a few days at Somerset last week and while there took in the Wallace circus. Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker, of Somerset, was here last week looking after her business interests. Mrs. John Walls, of Harrison, Tenn., has been visiting friends and relatives near here. Little Miss Dora Rigney visited relatives at McKinney. Mr. Vallandigham, telegrapher, was here recently.

W. L. McCarty went to Lexington Friday. The gentlemanly Mr. Chilton, of Louisville, was here a few days since selling our merchants large bills of goods. Chas. Evans and family have moved to Lexington for the winter. Point Dixon and wife are boarding at Ludlow and Morris Walls and wife occupy the house vacated by them. Mrs. Parsons, of near Stanford, has bought of Robin Rigney a house and lot on the pike and will move to it soon. Mr. Rigney's handsome home on the pike in "Sringtown" is nearing completion.

Dr. B. F. Walter, who was to arrive here on the 10th, did not reach here until the 19th, owing to a rather serious accident which happened to his little daughter. Rumor has it, however, that Dr. Walter was detained on account of having been called to Washington to attend to President Roosevelt's teeth. While Dr. Walter does not deny it, we place no credence in the story, regarding him as too good a democrat. G. A. Walter will go to the city soon to buy more goods, which he will add to his fine stock. W. L. McCarty will go to Cincinnati next week. His wife and son will accompany him. Miss Mary Sweeney goes to Somerset for a visit in a few days. Mrs. Emily Gooch and children returned to McKinney Monday after a visit to relatives here. Mrs. Sarah Waters is quite sick. Mrs. Margaret Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Williams and Master Lawrence went to Eubanks to attend the birthday dinner of Mrs. Williams' mother. Mack Williams left Monday for Hot Springs. Jesse D. Wearen, of Stanford, was here Monday.

Only a Very Few Published.

It is not possible for the proprietors to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and telling of its remarkable cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every State in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarrhoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by W. N. Craig.

Robert Forbes, a wealthy citizen of Carbondale, Kas., found that a supposed gold brick purchased by him three weeks ago for $5,000 is composition metal, worth probably 50 cents.

GOV. J. C. W. BECKHAM

Will Speak At Stanford Thursday, Oct. 29, at 12:30 O'clock.

Senators McCreary and Blackburn and Congressman Ollie James will also be here. After the governor leaves there will be extended speeches by distinguished orators at the depot. You are cordially invited.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. THE GLOBE.

VOTERS TAKE NOTICE!

FELLOW CITIZENS:—A report is being circulated that I am an Infidel and took stock in C. C. Moore's paper, The Blue Grass Blade, to which I submit the following:
LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 21st, 1903.

MR. A. W. CARPENTER.
DEAR SIR:—You have asked me by telephone if I would not give you a written statement that you quit taking my paper because I was an Infidel. My impression is as follows: You began taking my paper because I was a prohibitionist but knowing that I was an Infidel and then you quit taking it either because I became more pronounced as an Infidel or you became more pronounced as a Christian, or both. When you began to take my paper, your feeling toward the church was not very cordial and you afterward took more interest in the church and stopped my paper because I was an Infidel. Respectfully, &c.,
CHARLES C. MOORE.
"QUAKERACRE," NEAR LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 23, 1903.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—This is to certify that while Mr. Alverson and Mr. Keller were at our house on Sunday night, Oct. 11th Mr. Keller said to me about as follows: "Mr. Carpenter is pretending to be a great Christian but Mr. Alverson believes about as you do." My wife and the two gentlemen and I were all engaged in a pretty animated conversation and I do not know whether or not Mr. Alverson heard him say that. The words I give are not exactly those of Mr. Keller but they are nearly the same and the sentiment is exactly the same.
CHARLES C. MOORE.

I can prove that after I notified Mr. Moore to stop his paper, he continued to send it but I did not take it from the office and when I learned that Mr. F. R. Compton, the postmaster at Milledgeville, was giving them out to other parties I instructed him not to do so and when a number of copies had accumulated in the office, I called for them and burned them in the stove in the postoffice. I can substantiate the fact that I have given more money to the county mission work of the Christian church than any other man.

I have not voted for any man on the democratic or republican ticket for more than 12 years; before that, I voted on both sides. I voted for Mr. Bradley against Judge Durham for Congress, on personal grounds, about 28 years ago. I elected I shall go to Frankfort as a patriot and not as a partisan; with the welfare of my county at heart and will support any measure that I think best for the "great common people," regardless of any party.

I can prove that Mr. Alverson has said he was not in favor of a stock law, and in a few moments afterwards tell another party in the presence of the first party and wink at the same time to the first party that he was in favor of a stock law. I can prove that Mr. Alverson has said that he was as good a prohibitionist as I am. There are other reports being circulated about me that are just as false, but "Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and the harder you rub it the brighter it will shine. "To thine own self be true and as day follows the night, thou canst not not be false to any man."

Respectfully,
A. W. CARPENTER.

CONCERNING the injunction proceedings brought by D. C. Edwards to prevent the county clerk from placing Dr. Godfrey Hunter's name on the ballots, Judge T. Z. Morrow, of Somerset, probably the best authority in the republican party, says that in his opinion the injunction obtained by the Edwards men in the Laurel circuit court is void as to clerks except the one in Laurel county. He holds that court to be without jurisdiction outside of Laurel county. He had the same question before him in the Colson-Adams contest some years ago and dismissed the injunction as to all the clerks except the one in Pulaski county, where action was brought. Judge Morrow is also of the opinion that J. S. Cooper is not the governing authority in the 11th Congressional district, but C. M. Barnett, the governing authority of the State, and the district and State committees are the governing bodies within their respective jurisdictions.

THE Democratic State Campaign Committee is receiving numerous letters from various parts of the State telling of the action of the republican leaders in certain counties which have republican sheriffs. With two members of the county election boards of various counties, the republicans are ignoring the law, and have refused to allow democratic representation in the voting booths. In many precincts only republicans have been appointed to serve as election officers, and the democrats are allowed no voice in the procedure. The Campaign Committee has called on all democrats to assert the rights given them by law, and to insist on a fair and equal representation at the polls.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has just rounded out its third year under the present management and the editor desires to thank the subscribers, advertisers and patrons generally, who have so liberally patronized it and who, by substantial aid and kind words, have made his regime both pleasant and profitable. A glance at our advertising columns shows what we are doing in that line, and our large and growing circulation bears silent testimony to the fact that nearly everybody in this entire section reads the I. J., while the paper finds its way to thousands of homes in other counties and States.

DON'T fail to hear Mr. Gilbert at the court-house to night. He is an exceedingly pleasing speaker and he will both entertain and interest you.

THE public is soon to be edified, or instructed, as the case may be, through the instrumentality of Capt. B. J. Ewen, formerly of Jackson, and who was the principal witness against Curtis Jett and Tom White, at their recent trial and conviction at Cynthiana, for the murder of James B. Marcum. Captain Ewen has decided to invade the lecture field, and has also published a work, consisting of a brief biography of himself and his life experience in the feud centers of the mountain districts of Eastern Kentucky.

HON. A. E. WILLSON is one of the most distinguished republicans in the State. He was unmercifully turned down by the federal officeholders in Louisville convention, who have been trying ever since to get him on the stump. Had he been nominated he might have given Gov. Beckham a chance to show his mettle in a race, as it is Belknap cannot furnish him amusement even of the simplest kind.

THE Somerset Journal truthfully remarks: Four-fifths of the white voters of Kentucky are democrats; four-fifths of the employers of labor in Kentucky are democrats; four-fifths of the taxes are paid by democrats in Kentucky, and the democrats are entitled to control Kentucky, and the voters will see to it at the polls that democrats shall continue in control.

WE do not know much about the town of Louisa, but the fact that "Puddin' Head" Deboe didn't have a soul to hear his speech after he had been extensively advertised to deliver an "oration," makes us feel kindly toward her citizens, who evidently haven't the time to waste on the old numskull.

A SINGLE stamp in the circle under the rooster on your ballot means a vote for the entire democratic ticket, but you must not stop there. Cross over to the last column and vote "Yes" on the court-house and Constitutional Amendment propositions.

JUST one week more and the agony will be over. The republicans are working night and day. If the democrats will do likewise the first ticket on the ballot will win hands down and all will be well.

POLITICAL.

Robert Wilcox, former Congressional delegate from Hawaii, died in Honolulu.

Richmond Pearson, United States Minister to Persia, was fined in Italy for insulting a railway official.

Dr. William R. McMahon, prominent in republican politics in the Third Indiana Congressional district, died of heart failure.

Senator Morgan will introduce a resolution on the Isthmian canal question at the extra session of Congress. He will endeavor to show that the Panama route is beyond consideration.

The next Legislature will be asked for an appropriation of $150,000 for the erection of new buildings for Kentucky State College, at Lexington. The enrollment this year is 700 and the accommodations are inadequate.

Arrangements have been completed for the big democratic rally to be held at the Auditorium, Louisville, on next Wednesday night, October 28. The speakers will be Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Congressman Swagar Sherley and Judge James H. Mulligan. Judge Sterling B. Toney will preside.

The democratic rally at Hopkinsville Saturday afternoon was one of the most magnificent held during this campaign. Ten thousand people were in attendance, and it is estimated that 6,000 heard Gov. Beckham and Congressman James speak in Union Tabernacle. The enthusiasm ran so high that Gov. Beckham was picked up and carried around the building on the shoulders of a crowd of men. The parade was an exceedingly long one. The Governor rode in a carriage between a retinue of young women and their escorts on horseback.

HERE AND THERE.

The bank of Plato, Minn., was blown up with nitro-glycerine and robbed.

Former Congressman Thomas J. Van Alstyne, of the Albany, N. Y., district, is dead.

Dowle's coach and train were seized in New York on attachment secured by an attorney for a fee.

The immigration to the United States during the fiscal year of 1903 reached 867,056, an increase of 208,303 over last year.

Three children, aged three, four and five years, were suffocated in a sandpit in which they were playing at St. Paul, Minn.

Lieut. Peary delivered an address in Washington in which he stated that he believed the North Pole could be found in two years at a cost of $150,000.

By the general shut down of the Amalgamated Copper Co. at Butte, Mont., from 13,000 to 15,000 men are directly thrown out of employment and others will be indirectly affected within a week, so that the grand total will reach 20,000.

Broke Into His House.

S. Lee Quinn, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of chronic constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at all drug stores.

LANCASTER.

The Christian Endeavor gave a social hour to its members Friday evening at the Christian church. About 35 were present.

Mrs. Fred Kemper and family have returned to their home in Kansas City. Two weeks ago she brought the remains of her husband to Lancaster for interment.

The only county office to be filled this fall is that of Representative S. D. Cochran and Circuit Clerk J. W. Hamilton. The republicans have made no nominations for these offices.

E. McWhorter, of London, will reside here after Jan. 1st, having rented the Sangers dwelling on Danville Avenue. Mr. McWhorter is a man of ability and means and Lancaster welcomes him.

An agent of the State Auditor was in our city for some days and has had a number of tax payers summoned to show cause why they were not required to pay taxes on certain mortgage notes, which have not been listed for taxation.

The protracted meeting which has been looked forward to with so much interest began Sunday morning at the Christian church, Eld. F. M. Tieder preaching two excellent sermons Sunday. Dr. H. D. Smith, of Hopkinsville, will arrive Monday to take part in the services.

The friends of Mr. Lewis Doty will be grieved to hear of his death. For two weeks he was in a very critical condition at the residence of his father in this city. Mr. Doty resided in Lincoln county, where he left a host of friends, who will regret to learn of his untimely death.

The local W. C. T. U. has been receiving donations of clothing, books and toys to be sent to the school at Hindman, Knott county, which is supported by the noble W. C. T. U. of the State. These will be expressed this week but will not reach its destination until near Christmas.

Miss Pauline Arnold, of Jellico, Tenn., was married to Mr. Lester Wilson, of Greenville, Miss., at the residence of Mr. Geo. T. Farris on Wednesday evening. After the wedding they were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Farris, sister to the bride, after which they left to tour through the South. They will reside at Greenville.

It is with regret that we notice the list of our worthy citizens who have left the county to reside in the West—Mr. Ike Dunn to Kansas City, Mr. Wm. Walls, Mr. W. Y. Curry and Mr. A. Spoonamore to Kansas, Jas. Conn, Sam Pollard to Oklahoma, Henry Moore and Tom Walls to the West and Sam Spoonamore to California. Fortunately for us others are coming in to take their place.

Miss Mary Burnside is visiting Miss Genia Dunlap, of Lexington. Miss Martha Elkin has returned after a two weeks visit to Miss Mary Welch at Nicholasville. The company which appears to-night at Walton's Opera House comes highly recommended and every one should attend.

DOTY.—Our Lancaster letter tells of the death of Lewis L. Doty, who until a few weeks ago resided in this county. Bright's disease was the cause of his death, which occurred yesterday morning. A wife and a two-year old son survive. The burial will occur in the Lancaster cemetery this afternoon. Mr. Doty was a son of Capt. J. Alex Doty, of Garrard, and was a model young man. He made friends of all with whom he came in contact and his untimely taking away is a sad blow to them. No finer young man ever lived in Lincoln county nor one who stood higher with his fellow men. Lewis Doty was a gentleman in all the word implies. Peace to his ashes. !

BANK FOR BRYANTSVILLE.—James W. Hutcheson, cashier of the Farmers Bank at Salvia, Mercer county, has organized a Bank at Bryantville, Garrard county, with a capital stock of $15,000. Following were elected officers: President, R. H. Pettus; Vice President, C. C. Becker, and cashier, J. M. Smith.

HOUSES were never scarcer in Stanford than they are at present. In fact there isn't a vacant house in town while on the contrary there are applicants by the dozen for dwellings. Our mounted men would help themselves and the town as well if they would spend some of their spare capital in building good houses for rent.

GOOD crowds attended the democratic speaking at Crab Orchard, Waynesburg and Kingsville Saturday and good, wholesome doctrine was heard. Our democrats are at last being awakened to the importance of doing something and they have gone to work in earnest. Let them keep at it until 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon next and all will be well.

INGOMAR—Miss Margaret Ingels, of Paris, will star this season in "Ingomar," the German classical play, under the management of Mr. John T. McCracken. Miss Ingels is a very clever actress of wide experience and her Parthenia has been pronounced the equal of Mary Anderson's. Miss Ingels is supported by Jack Dalgnerfield, one of the youngest leading men on the American stage, whose success last winter in "Alabama" justifies bright hopes for his future as "Ingomar." The company will make the leading towns of Kentucky, touring in an automobile before starting on its Southern trip. It will begin the season at Stanford next Thursday night.—Lex. Democrat.

B. N. ROLLER SHOT TO DEATH.—Master of Trains B. N. Roller was shot and killed Sunday afternoon at Livingston by A. N. Bentley, foreman of the wrecking crew. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Bentley surrendered and was taken to Mt. Vernon. Bentley states that he and Mr. Roller had a quarrel some 30 minutes before the killing and that Mr. Roller objected to his using the public bath house erected by the railroad men. After another quarrel, which occurred at the bath house, he claims Roller attempted to draw a pistol and he opened fire from a 44 caliber revolver, five shots taking effect. When the wounded man was reached he was lying on his face, and when turned over he breathed a few times and expired. He leaves a wife, who is postmaster at Livingston. The remains will be taken to New Hope for burial. Both Messrs. Bentley and Roller used to live here and they are well known by our people.

Hons. G. B. Saffell and W. S. Burch at Bee Lick Saturday, 31, at 1:30 P. M. and at Chestnut Ridge, 31, at 7 P. M.

A MOMENTOUS QUESTION.—Mr. Adam W. Carpenter, who hopes by the aid of a few sore democrats and the republicans who know how to scratch their ballots, to represent Lincoln county as a prohibitionist in the next General Assembly, takes a column of our space this issue to prove that he is not an infidel, although he admits that he assisted for awhile an infidel paper to exist in this grand State of ours. He readily arrives at the conclusion himself that he is no infidel and having settled that question he gives his political record. Long ago he quit voting with either party, he says, but in the same breath he admits having voted for W. O. Bradley over M. J. Durham. We are reliably informed that he also voted for Col. Wm. Herndon for circuit judge over his and our county man, Judge M. C. Saffell, but he doesn't deem it necessary to mention that in his card. According to his statement he is no infidel, and he proves himself no democrat, so we arrive at the conclusion that he is a republican-prohibitionist, and being a republican-prohibitionist we opine he will vote for republican-prohibition measures, should he be elected. This being the case we might expect Mr. Carpenter to do no more for the democrats than the rank-and-file republican in Lincoln county would. Records will show that prohibitionists vote with the republicans when the scratch comes, and we'll wager that if Mr. Carpenter is elected and Gov. Beckham's seat is contested he will vote with the rats to unseat him. Take no chances, but vote under the rooster and your vote will be counted for Mr. Jesse M. Alverson, the regular democratic nominee, who will vote democratic on all questions at all times. It will require scratching to vote for Mr. Carpenter unless you vote the entire prohibition ticket and you might spoil your ballot while you were doing that.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Barbourville is to have waterworks in addition to electric lights, a gas plant and other modern conveniences. Alice Lamb, a mountain woman, was murdered in a saloon at Middlesboro. Two men are being held on suspicion. The New Livingston Coal Company, of Rockcastle county, with $15,000 capital stock, was incorporated at Frankfort.

Dr. Phil Roberts, aged about 70 years, one of the best known physicians in Madison county, died of paralysis. He was a member of the State Senate from that district for two terms and was a captain in Woolford's First Kentucky cavalry. Dr. Roberts was the republican nominee for Congress a number of years ago.

James M. Saffell, 51 years old, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frances T. Saffell, 29, eloped to Cincinnati from Frankfort, and were married.

Miss Mary Margaret Brothers, of Marion, is a woman whose notions are changeable. She and Mr. John Elmore went to Lebanon on matrimony bent, and after procuring a marriage license proceeded to the St. Augustine church, where the ceremony was to have been performed. The pastor was in the act of saying the ceremony, when suddenly the young lady stated that she believed she was taking a wrong step and refused to be wedded. Mr. Elmore insisted, but she remained obdurate and the license that had been procured was torn to pieces.
